The chopper deal was cancelled by the government in February following allegations of corruption. A source told Business Standard that "no-holds barred investigations" are under way into the AgustaWestland transactions. The source said this will include the "confiscation of all money collected and transferred abroad by companies owned by the AgustaWestland deal makers". "We have been told by the government that they are freezing all cash transactions by AgustaWestland and its members, the consortium of companies (AgustaWestland and Finmeccanica). The government will see to it that whoever is involved is held responsible for his transgressions," the source said. As many as 10 ED officials raided the Indian headquarters of AgustaWestland on April 3. The raid was conducted following the allegations made by KPMG, the Comptroller and Auditor General of India, that the selection of Vayu through a US-based company, Endurance Systems Inc, was wrong. The company is part of the AgustaWestland conglomerate and its founder, Giancarlo Bruno, was also arrested by the ED in April. Since then, the raids have been extended to Milan and the UK. In March, sources had said the government had filed an affidavit in the Supreme Court
